Tiger Logistics (India) Ltd. Receives Prestigious IATA Accreditation – Opening New Horizons in Air Freight Market

21st June 2023, New Delhi – We are delighted to announce that Tiger Logistics (India) Ltd., a premier third-party logistics company specializing in international cargo and project logistics, has been granted a Certificate of Accreditation from the International Air Transport Association (IATA).

This accreditation signifies that our company has met the professional standards set by the IATA, enabling us to promote, sell, and handle international air cargo transportation. Consequently, our registered office address, the effective date of IATA approval, and the IATA numeric code, along with the location identifier code, will be listed on the IATA cargo Agency list.

The management of Tiger Logistics (India) Limited eagerly anticipates that this certification will open up significant opportunities in the air freight market, an area we have not been able to venture into until now. We are confident that the IATA certification will contribute to tremendous business growth, particularly in the logistics of pharmaceuticals, high-end fashion readymade garments, chemicals, aviation parts, and components, among others.

Moreover, this certification will enhance our company's eligibility to participate in major government tenders by meeting the technical qualifications.

We express our gratitude to all our shareholders for their unwavering support and belief in Tiger Logistics. We remain committed to providing exceptional logistics services and creating value for our esteemed stakeholders.
